

Itinerary 2:

Pont Neuf, La Samaritaine & Notre-Dame Walk

Best for:
tourists who like shopping, architecture, Seine views, and cathedral visits

Duration:
around 3 to 3.5 hours

Style: sightseeing, elegant shopping, and Paris heritage

Start:
Pont Neuf Metro Station, Line 7

End:
Notre-Dame area

This route is ideal if you want to combine La Caverne du Pont Neuf, La Samaritaine, the Seine, and the Notre-Dame area in one relaxed walk.

1

Start at Pont Neuf Metro Station

Start again from Pont Neuf metro station, Line 7. It is the simplest access point for this route. Because of the installation period and temporary traffic restrictions, metro and walking are usually the easiest solution for visitors.

See La Caverne du Pont Neuf First

Visit La Caverne du Pont Neuf before continuing to other stops. This keeps the main attraction at the beginning of your walk and gives you more flexibility afterward.

Stop at La Samaritaine

After Pont Neuf, walk toward La Samaritaine, one of the most famous department stores in Paris. It is a useful comfort stop for shopping, coffee or snack break, toilets, architecture, and a rainy-day pause.

Walk Along the Seine Toward Notre-Dame

From La Samaritaine, continue along the Seine toward Île de la Cité and the Notre-Dame area. This section offers river views, bridges, historic buildings, street life, and classic Paris photo opportunities.

5

Finish Near Notre-Dame

End near Notre-Dame Cathedral. Depending on the day, take photos outside, visit inside if access is available, or continue toward Île Saint-Louis for ice cream, coffee, or a quieter walk.
